

SPORTS UPDATE

WBOP TOUCH CARNIVAL

Bay of Plenty Rugby held their inaugural Western Bay of Plenty Touch Carnival on Friday 25 November. We entered two teams into the competition, a year 3-4 mixed team and a year 5-6 mixed team. Our teams competed against a number of other schools from Papamoa, Tauranga and Mount Maunganui. The competition was tough but it was a fun day enjoyed by all. Excitingly, our year 3-4 team who were coached by Mr Newlands, achieved third place in their grade. This is an awesome result especially given the size of many of the other schools they were competing against. Thanks to Kate Magill for taking some great photos and Taryn Clarke for coaching our year 5-6 team. We look forward to entering the tournament again in 2023.

MINI POLO

Our year 5-6 Mini Polo team, the SA Dolphins, played Omanu over the weekend and came away with their first win of the season. Ka pai team.

WBOP Junior Tennis Tournament

A couple of weekends ago, Rainer and Dante Jager competed in the Tecnifibre WBOP Junior Residentials 2022 tennis tournament and came in 1st place in the U11 Doubles! Ka rawe boys. We are very proud of you.

WBOP ATHLETICS CLUSTERS

Following their success at the Papamoa Clusters Athletics event, three of our learners qualified to represent the Papamoa Cluster at the Western Bay of Plenty Athletics Clusters.

Charlotte Clarke in Discus, Sofia Denyer in Long Jump and Amandine Aubry in High Jump. The girls all performed well amongst some seasoned competition. It is a marvellous achievement to make it to this level and we are very proud of their efforts.

In the Lane
By Indy Chapman (Year 4)

One Sunday morning, Thea got up out of bed and decided that she would go to town for the morning. She rang her best friend Ryland and asked her if she would like to go too. "Cool, yeah!" Ryland said. "Meet me at my place at 9," Thea told her.

It was a gorgeous sunny day. Town wasn't far away so the two friends walked there in the sunshine, chatting away the whole time. As they got to the shopping centre, Thea saw a lady crossing the road. But while she was crossing the road a car came along. The car didn't stop so the lady was stuck in the middle. After that there was so much traffic so she had to wait and wait. The lady was scared. Finally a car stopped so she could get to the other side.

"Wow!" cried Ryland. I've never seen town so busy. "Wonder what's going on." "I think that with the Olympics on, it might get busy, ok" replied Thea.

Thea looked at the lady again. She was on her way to a shop across another busy road. Again she had to wait until a car stopped for her. Thea watched her walk into a shop and disappear.

The two girls ran off down the street but then they realised that they had forgotten they were going to the same shop as that lady. So they ran back to cross the road but they got stuck too. They laughed and laughed. "Should we wait?" asked Ryland. "Ummm, OK" said Thea.

One hour later they got to the middle of the busy road. They got stuck again, but finally made it safely to the other side. They went into the shop and when they got in they saw the lady inside. The lines were so long it was like they were back in the traffic. Thea said, "do you want to go to my house for some coffee instead? Town is crazy busy! I've had enough!" "NO!" cried Ryland. "Then we have to go through all the traffic again. Let's go to the other bakery, just down this road." "Yeah. All right," agreed Thea.

So they skipped the shop and went to the bakery instead. They ran to the bakery and it was like a beautiful, savoury and sweet land. When Thea looked around the room it was crowded and Thea said, "Look! Too many people! How about going to my house to have some tea instead?" "Yeah, good idea," said Ryland, "but the traffic is still there..."

"Ok, wait. I have my car at my mum's house," replied Thea, and she dashed down the street yelling "stay in the line and when I am back we will have some nice things to eat!" "Why me?" Ryland yelled back. But suddenly the line in front of Ryland was gone and she ordered them some delicious buns to eat. Not long after Thea arrived and they both sat down at a table in the cafe to eat. When they had eaten and talked enough they got into Thea's car and she drove them home.

"Hey Thea," said Ryland. "Let's not go this late into town because it is too busy and it took us a long time to get to the cafe and back here." "Yes," agreed Thea laughing.
